Key Strategic Objectives (Updated March 2010)

1. Enjoy and Achieve

- To overcome social exclusion and develop a sense of pride and achievement for Sikh women of all ages
- To promote empowering of Sikh women through capacity building
- To enhance access to education, work skills and employment
- To provide "creative and cultural" experiences to develop and promote Sikh values

2. Make a positive contribution

- To network and provide support and guidance for socially and economically disadvantaged Sikh women
- To instil a sense of responsibility to make a full use of competencies and capabilities and engage with society to promote community cohesion
- To create opportunities for better understanding, good relationships, harmony, trust and respect between all faiths and communities

3. Personal development and well being

- To encourage participation in a range of activities to enhance physical well being
- To provide a range of opportunities to broaden outlook and emotional well being
- To undertake research and review strategies and way forward for improving well being and social standing

4. Achieve Economical and Social well being

- To challenge barriers to the lawful rights of Sikh women to achieve equality and justice
- To provide forum for women to engage in dialogue to discuss challenges and issues facing them
- To build partnership and links with the wider society organisations to have full access to community and social services

5. Leadership and management

- To secure resources and funds to promote our objectives
- To fulfill the above objectives in an apolitical and impartial way
- To explore ways forward to enhance contribution of more individual and organisations to meet SWA objectives
- To celebrate achievements and acknowledge contributions to fulfill SWA objectives
